

2009 Fashion Commentator Contest
Example Review Script

Good evening, I am _____ from _____ County and it is my pleasure to serve as a commentator for this year's Fashion Revue. We will begin with Senior Clothing Construction I - Casual Wear

Whitley Gammill looks simply smashing in her retro metallic mini dress. She is ready to get her groove on. Whitley takes her look over the top with metallic go go boots . . . yeah, baby! Whitley is from Chaves County and is in Barn Buddies 4-H club in Roswell. Whitley is a 4-H council officer and President of her club. She is the daughter of Bruce and LaDonna Gammill and has one sister Bailey who is a 7th grader. Whitley is a sophomore at Goddard High School. Whitley's 4-H projects this year include: Swine, lambs, and dairy heifers. Whitley plays basketball for Goddard High School. When Whitley has spare time her favorite thing to do is just hang out with her friends.

Courtney Kyle is showing off her summer casual dress she made in Senior Clothing Construction this year. Courtney's dress which is made of 100% cotton in a pink and white swirl design. Complimenting her dress is a white eyelet bolero jacket which Courtney made also made. A white beaded necklace and matching white shoes pull this outfit together, perfect any summer occasion. Courtney is the daughter of June and the late Billy Kyle. She is a member of the Chaparral 4-H Club in Fort Sumner, which she serves as club secretary and vice president of the De Baca County 4-H Council. Thank you Courtney.

Elizabeth Richins is ready for a fun summer party in her eye-catching camouflage capris and girly top. The capris have a side zipper and button cuffs on the bottom. The retro top is accessorized with lace at the sash and the hem. Made with beige muslin, the top has cute puff sleeves and a tie in the back. To accessorize her garment, Elizabeth is wearing brown flip-flops and a shell necklace. She had a great time making this garment with her mom, and looks forward to wearing it this summer. Elizabeth will be a sophomore at Animas High School, where she plays volleyball and basketball. She is a member of the Cotton City 4-H Club in Hidalgo County.

Please welcome K'Dawn Jackson, Program Coordinator, Department of Extension Home Economics to the stage to present the Fashion Revue Awards.
