

2018 New Mexico State 4-H Dog School

The New Mexico State 4-H Dog School was designed to help the 4-H youth get a greater understanding of the 4-H Dog Project, their dog and their responsibilities to their dog and community. There will be two days of dog and handler training classes, demonstrations and workshops. On the third day there will be a dog show and awards.

When: June 8 – 10, 2018

Where: Bernalillo County Sheriff's Posse Grounds in Albuquerque, NM

Registration Fee: $85.00 per 4-H Youth

Optional: $18.00 (for daily meals for others attending with 4-H Youth)

Registration Deadline: Friday, May 4, 2018

RV hook-up fee (electricity and/or water): $25.00 per day (will be monitored by Bernalillo County Sheriff's Posse and must be paid to Dog School Committee or BCSP member)