PHOTOGRAPHS
BY
DR. MICHAEL K. O’NEILL, PROFESSOR AND
JOSE FERNANDEZ MEMORIAL CHAIR IN CROP PRODUCTION
NMSU AGRICULTURAL SCIENCE CENTER
FARMINGTON, NM
Mr. Malesu’s visit to New Mexico State University... for enhancement of faculty and student exchange opportunities between the World Agroforestry Centre and New Mexico State University.

Javier Vargas
Retired CES Doña Ana County Director (left)

Henrietta Vargas
Granddaughter of Jose Fernandez (right)

& Maimbo Malesu
Ag. Engineer, World Agroforestry Centre, Nairobi, Kenya (middle)
Malesu dines with NMSU’s College of Agriculture, Consumer and Environmental Sciences students, faculty and staff at the La Posta Restaurant, to strengthen relationships between his home institution and NMSU.
Mr. Malesu presents a lecture for the Las Cruces general public titled "Overcoming Food Crises: Rainwater Harvesting in Sub-Saharan Africa and South Asia" while visiting New Mexico State University’s main campus in Las Cruces, NM. Maimbo’s visit was co-sponsor by the Jose Fernandez Chair, the Lowenstein Speaker Series, and International Programs.
Mr. Malesu recipient of award...

in appreciation for presenting two Lowenstein Lectures at NMSU.

October 21, 2010 lecture to the general public.

October 22, 2010 lecture to Plant and Environmental Sciences faculty and graduate students.

Dr. John Mexal
ACES’ Interim Department Head, Plant and Environmental Sciences (left)

&

Maimbo Malesu
Ag. Engineer, World Agroforestry Centre, Nairobi, Kenya (right)
Mr. Malesu’s tour of a pecan orchard irrigation system ... utilized by NMSU’s College of Agricultural, Consumer and Environment (ACES) Leyendecker Plant Science Center south of Las Cruces, NM.
In 2009, Owen Cortner studied under Mr. Malesu’s and Dr. O’Neill’s guidance while on student attachment in Rwanda with the World Agroforestry Center.
Tour of chile production countryside  Hatch, New Mexico

Maimbo Malesu
Ag. Engineer, World Agroforestry Centre, Nairobi, Kenya (left)

&

Chile vendor
Hatch, New Mexico (right)
Mr. Malesu presents a seminar at San Juan College Horticulture Class, Farmington, NM on the “Development of an Irrigation Master Plant for Rwanda.”
A tour of the North Farmington irrigation ditch... offered Mr. Malesu insight into urban irrigation systems. The trestle in the background supports the canal sluice across the Glade Arroyo near Apache Elementary School in Farmington, NM.
Trip to southwest Colorado...

where Mr. Malesu Maimbo and Dr. Michael O’Neill, José Fernandez Chair, took a step back in time, while visiting Cliff Palace at Mesa Verde National Park.