

Financials and Refunds Agreement

Please read and initial each statement carefully and do not sign off on this agreement until all your questions have been answered. This document is mandatory for any off-campus international program originating from New Mexico State University.

Full Payment of Fees/Financial Responsibilities

- _____ I acknowledge personal financial responsibility for my own personal property and any property or equipment of NMSU under my personal care, custody, and control during this trip. It shall be my responsibility to coordinate with the University's Central Purchasing & Risk Management Department to ensure applicable insurance coverage is in place to cover any losses of university-owned property or equipment.
- _____ Regardless of whether I receive any financial aid or third-party funds, I agree to pay the NMSU application, tuition, and administrative fees and any applicable third-party program or supplemental charges when due. I am also personally responsible for any debts incurred on my behalf while abroad (e.g. library fines, damages, telephone bills).

Refund Rules and Regulations

_____ If I withdraw from the Program, I am subject to the repayment of all funds to Aggies Go Global including airfare. Under certain extenuating circumstances, for example (but not limited to), personal or immediate family related medical emergencies, full or partial exemptions can be provided on a case-by-case basis. I understand that it is my responsibility to inform Aggies Go Global about the situation.

Furthermore, I represent, covenant and agree, on behalf of myself and my heirs, assigns, and any other person claiming by, under or through me, that I have carefully read and reviewed this Financial and Refunds Agreement. I understand it fully and I execute it voluntarily.
