Senior Leadership Retreat
4-H Saves You
Native American Scholarship 2022

Indian Resources Development (IRD), in the College of Agricultural, Consumer and Environmental Sciences is a statewide program that offers educational and professional development opportunities for Native American students from NM in the areas of agriculture, natural resources, engineering, energy, and business. As such, IRD is offering scholarships covering up to 65% of the registration fee for Native American 4-H members, affiliated with tribal nations in New Mexico, and who are eligible to attend Senior Leadership Retreat (SLR).

In order to receive this sponsorship, eligible youth need to complete the lower portion of this letter and submit it with their SLR registration. The county will complete the online registration as they do for every participant and email me a copy of the scholarship form. Funds will be paid directly to the 4-H Office upon receipt of the forms.

To learn about IRD, visit <https://ird.nmsu.edu/> or contact Claudia Trueblood (ird@nmsu.edu). If you have questions about how to use the sponsorship form, please contact me.
