New Mexico 4-H Exploring Citizenship, Unit V

The 4-H Citizenship V Project, "My World" is designed to help the senior 4-H member develop skills in relating with youth and adults from varied backgrounds.

In this project, you will:

- *Learn about yourself.
- *Learn about people throughout the world.
- *Learn to appreciate the different, but equally rich ideas, living patterns and values of others throughout the world.

Project Materials:

Exploring Citizenship, Unit V, My World Workbook 100.F-27
"My World" Citizenship Project Summary (included in project book)
Exploring Citizenship, Unit V Greentop 400.F-27

To complete this project:

- *Complete project book and summary form.
- *Attend club/project meetings.
- *Plan and implement your own "My World" project by completing one activity in each of these areas: Search for Brotherhood; Quest for Expression; Investigation of Countries and Cultures; Pursuit of a Better Life for All; and The Individual in Society in the World.

You will exhibit any of these items at Achievement Days or Fairs:

- *My World Project Book

Leadership Activities:

- *Organize and carry on a local club letter exchange with a 4-H club in another county in New Mexico.
- *Learn about a particular craft from another culture and then teach the craft and explain its cultural history and the importance of it to others.
- *Select a country or area of the world that interests you and collect resources about that country. Give a talk about that country at your County Council or local club meeting and plan an exhibit about that country's history, agriculture, etc.

New Mexico State University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and educator.
NMSU and the U.S. Department of Agriculture cooperating.

Citizenship Activities:

*Volunteer your services in a cultural situation with ethnic or social groups different from your own. Examples include tutoring programs, Indian Reservations, Head Start Centers, or community health clinics.

*Look up the history of food distribution and discover why some people of the world go hungry while others have more than they need. Plan a food drive for those less fortunate than you.

*Investigate the purpose of international organizations such as the United Nations and share with others how the UN contributes to the order and stability of the world.
