

ANIMAL & RANGE SCIENCE SUMMER CAMP

July 22nd- 26th 2019

NMSU Campus Knox Hall & Surrounding Farms

Animal Science camp is a week long program designed for 7th-10th graders with an interest in Animal Science and Range Science. Workshops will include beef cattle, horses, sheep, pigs, companion animals and range science. Students will engage in hands-on learning opportunities with current students and faculty and tour research facilities.

Monday – Friday 8:00AM -12:00PM

$75/student, includes snacks and t-shirt

Workshop Schedule

Monday – Anatomy Workshop

Tuesday – Reproduction Workshop

Wednesday – Nutrition Workshop

Thursday – Range Science Workshop

Friday- Quiz Bowl, Pizza Party

<https://aces.nmsu.edu/academics/anrs/anrs-camp> | 575-646-2514

BE BOLD. Shape the Future. New Mexico State University